

SERVICE AGREEMENT / CONFIDENTIALITY

As a student registered in the Binary Solution Test Preparation, Inc., LSAT Course, I understand that:

- This course promises to teach the Binary Solution Test Preparation, Inc. method by Eva Lana or any of her trained instructors.
- Tutoring may be offered through in-person, email, phone or internet contact.
- The methodology and material presented in this course is an unpublished copyrighted work containing Proprietary information of Binary Solution Test Preparation, Inc.
- This course and its materials may not be reproduced in whole or in part, without express written permission from Binary Solution Test Preparation, Inc., which is the sole owner of copyright and all other rights therein. Prohibited disclosure includes any copying in any form, electronic or mechanical, including photocopy, recording, or any information retrieval system.
- I am not affiliated or acting on the behalf of any entity that is involved in any way with test preparation. If I have ever received wages from any test preparation entity, I am making note of the organization(s) and the dates of my work here:
- Due to the competitive advantage that can be achieved through the course material, I agree to treat it as highly sensitive and confidential. In the event that I do not uphold this confidentiality, I will be held personally liable for damages. I acknowledge that it is difficult to anticipate the value of such damages. I agree to pay as liquidated damages the amount of $500,000 which I acknowledge is the best currently available estimate of actual damages.

Name

Date